

Lost and Found in the Deep Blue Sea – Ancillary Reading

If you find these discussions interesting, below are suggestions to continue reading. Some may be found in the local library or through used book sellers. These are not required reading.

Polar Exploration and the Endurance

- a) Polar Extremes (TV Episode) – Discovery Channel
- b) South – Sir Ernst Shackleton (Detailed account of the greatest survival story).
- c) Shackleton’s Boat Journey - P.A. Worsley (Captain/Navigator Endurance & James Caird).
- d) The Endurance: Shackleton’s Legendary Antarctic Expedition - Caroline Alexander (Hardcover has excellent photographs).
- e) The ship Beneath the Ice: Discovery of Shackleton’s Endurance - Mensun Bound (Archaeologist Mensun was aboard the ice breaker during the discovery of the Endurance - To be released February 28, 2023)

Polar Exploration - General

- a) Peary at the Pole: Fact or Fiction - Dennis Rawlins
- b) The South Pole – Roald Amundsen

Shipwrecks

- a) The Shipwreck Hunter – David L. Mearns (Great stories of contemporary shipwreck finds and their history)
- b) War at Sea – A shipwrecked History from Antiquity to the Twentieth Century – James P Delgado (Detailed history of sunken warships)
- c) The History and archaeology of the last slave ship, Clotilda – James P. Delgado – Alabama Press (Delgado’s most recent find and archeological effort - To be released Spring 2023).

Salvage of the SS *Egypt

- a) The Egypt’s Gold – David Scott (1932 account of the deepest salvage to date by a little-known group of Italian divers).

Survival

- b) Touching the Void - Joe Simpson (Amazing story of survival. Two Climbers in the Peruvian Andes survive the elements and injury after an unimaginable choice of life and death).
- c) 117 Days Adrift - Maurice and Marilyn Baily (Husband and wife spend 117 days in a life raft after their sailboat was sunk by a whale).