Examples of Excellence

Clear, accessible lede

- A group of Brunswick-area residents wants to make it easier for fish to get up the Androscoggin River, but there's a dam in the way.

Smart early placement of the regulatory hook

- Federal regulators and dam owners are about a year into the five-year process of relicensing...

Effective use of hard numbers

- In 2024 only 91 shad were recorded In 2023 it was just 14

A photograph of a dam with water flowing through its spillways. The dam is a concrete structure with multiple spillways. The water is dark and turbulent as it flows over the spillways. The surrounding area is a mix of dirt, rocks, and sparse vegetation. In the background, there is a dense forest of trees. The sky is overcast and grey.
